GERARD IS GUEST

WITH LANSING AT

ing German Envoy.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27 .- Ambas-

on Dec. 5 by way of Copenbagen.

U-BOAT WARNING CAUSED SCARES ON INCOMING LINERS SAYS FALKENHAYN

on News British Flashed by Wireless.

ONE SAW SUBMARINE. EVASIVE ON BUCHAREST.

Munitions Now in the Danger Zone.

he shrouding the lights during dark- So spoke Gen. von Falkenhayn three

Red Star liner Lapland from Liver- capital. pool, the Italian ships Duca d'Aosta port the Roumanian roads black with

Canger indicated in wireless warnines which were flashed out by the British payal station at Hamilton, Bermuda, and the British armored erulser Lancastor, lying fifteen miles poutheast of Sandy Hook Messages from Washington say Government officials think the information on which the British base their warning came from spies in Germany. They believe these reports enanated from stock jobbing concerns in Herlin.

masters of all ships flying the flags smiled. But Falkenhayn looked of the Estante Allies to beware of German war submarines on this side of the Atlantic. They were told to show no more running lights than absolutely necessary and to avoid the regular lanes of steamship travel.

Other warships, which refused to disclose their identities, took up the duty of warning merchantmen, indicating the augmentation of the British war fleet in these waters. American liner Kroonland. which arrived yesterday from Liverpool, picked up the message at sea.

The Philadelphia, also of the Amer-Ican Line, also picked up the warning and Capt. Cady placed extra electric lights on the ship's side to illuminate he Stars and Stripes painted there. boats, watered and provisioned. were swung out ready for immediate but the liner neither saw nor and the snake continues." beard from any submarine.

The Laconia of the Cunard line and the Tuscania of the Anchor Line, ht and will probably run off their almost a score of British and rench merchantmen steamed from his port Saturday and yesterday.

YOUR HAIR ANI

wavy, lustrous and thick in a few moments.

Will deanse the hair of dast, dirt or counter-attack on the Serolans in the excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise of the man the Ollanne, the Total and the New York and the New

'MY TASK TO CRUSH ROUMANIAN ARMY.

'All Swing Out Their Lifeboats "Absolutely Confident of Victory," Declares Kaiser's Commander in Interview.

husbs, the proof Ships Loaded With "Ferdinand Played With Fire reasons of Ships Loaded With "Ferdinand Played With Fire and Now Is Going to Get Burned."

By Carl W. Ackerman,

From European and West Indias United Press Staff Correspondent. brought word that no craft of that and Sayville Wireless), -"Our tack to type had been observed. The incom- to destroy the Roumanian army-and ing vessels took all such precautions that we are doing as best we can."

ness and having the lifeboats swung days ago, since which time his army has made great progress in the direc-The arrivals to-day included the tion of Bucharest, the Roumanian "Our flyers," he continued, "reand Napoli from Mediterranean ports, people and wagons bearing refugees the Danish vessel Frederik VIII. from fleeing from Little Wallachia toward Scandinavian ports, the Brazos from the Alt River. That is the terrible Porto Rico and the Bermudian from part of war. That soldiers should suffer to war, but that wamen and children be put to such misery tha Stores of British vessels, bearing is terrible. But it was Roumania's Immense cargues of war munitions, choice Roumania played with fire are within the zone of submarine too long and is now getting burned "How soon do you expect to get to Bucharest?" the German general was asked. "Do we want Bucharest?" he responded immediately. "Every time we take charge of a city we have to feed the population. We are not bothdiers. Our task is to destroy the Roumanian army, and that we are doing as best we can."

"When will the Roumanian army be destroyed?" I asked. A few officers standing nearby

"Rain or snow, a railroad soeident, or most anything can destroy the best made plans. I have been in this war two and a half years and can say the only certein thing about it is-uncertainty. I am only certain of one thing and that is that we will

Seated across from His Excellency was his Chief of Staff. Turning next to him for comment on the Roumanian operations about Cralova, he reeponded:

"In the warfare here the cavalry goes forward like a snake over new territory-with its fange out and waving in the air. When those fangs drawn into the snake's mouth. Then,

maining Roumanian forces in Little
maining Roumanian forces in Little Wallachia. From Cralova, an important industrial city of a hundred thousand people, Falkenhayn's advanced forces are working north, south, east and west. To the north south industrial of Mr. Brooks, and for the family physician, many years his family physi and west one ring is forming-and a volt. second is being made to the south

The Germans are occupying all of BATTLESHIP FLEET OFF the Little Wallachia territory-which is the western one-fourth of all Roumania-aithough it will take several days to clear out the Roumanians hidden in the forests and cities. Between seven and ten battalions are believed to be bottled up there.

Officers declare it will be interesting to see what the Roumanians de-Flair becomes charming, cide to do whether they will fight or into the archives of United Service bendquarters to-day indicated that in the North River to permit their

First of New Aerial Defense Guns Mounted on U. S. Torpedo Boat

WORKINGMEN OF LIEGE TO BE DEPORTED SOON

Next Week Is the Time Set Ac cording to Reports From Amsterdam.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 27 .- Inhabitered by that question-we are sol- ents of the City of Liege, Belgium, have been notified by the German au therities to prepare for deportations of able-bodied workmen next week. large scale will be in process this crican theatrical affairs for thirty-

> LONDON, Nov. 27 A Repuer's despatch from Berne asserts that the Pederal Council bas instructed the Swiss Minister in Region to notify the German Government that the Relgian deportsions have "unfaceby impressed Swiss public opinion."

REVOLT IS THREATENED AMONG GERMAN WOMEN

Vorwaerts Quoted as Saying More Provision Must Be Made for Soldiers' Wives.

LONDON, Nov. 27.-The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Erianger. Telegraph Company quotes the encounter an obstacle, they are editorial declaring the Socialists will & Erlanger and the Shuberts Last Berlin Vorwaerts as publishing an oppose the Compulsion Bill in the May he rejoined the Klaw & Erlanger after a while, the fangs reappear, Reichstag unless the Government

Reports reaching von Palkenhavn's of the Atlantic Fleet, which had been brought him into the duties of an MUNITIONS STEAMSHIP Elsewhere in the Province of Liege assistant manager of actors. He has t is expected that deportations on a been an outstanding figure in Amfive years.

JOSEPH BROOKS, THEATRICAL MANAGER, LEAPS TO DEATH

(Continued from First Page.)

Among the stars who were man- The Neils Neilsen Loses Her Propelaged by him for many years were William H. Crane, Lillian Russell, Edith Taileferro and Julia Arthur. It was Mr. Brooks who persuaded

Paul M. Potter to dramatize Du Maurier's novel "Trilby," and one of his isheartening disappointmnets of the last few years was the discovery that he film version of "Trilby" had spoiled the commercial possibilities of the old play. Mr. Hrooks had a part in the proand was practically helpless, duction of "Ben Hur," a melodrama ty years after it was put on, and he to her assistance. She sailed from which is still strong more than twenproduced "Milestones" with Klaw & Seattle on Nov. 20 for Viadivostok, Mr. Brooks was associated at vari-

Mr. Brooks was associated at various times with A. W. Dingwall, Klaw $1,000,000. The cargo is valued at Paikenhayn's left wing is literally for soldiers' wives be increased in proportion to the increased cost of maining Roumanian forces in Little living.

The Vorwaerts is quoted as saying.

Dr. Oscar M. Leiser of No. 253 West Forty-fifth Street, long a close personal friend of Mr. Brooks, and for sonal friend of Mr. Brooks, and for sonal friend of Mr. Brooks, and for living.

The Vorwaerts is quoted as saying.

business affairs. He went under trained for nervous frouths even months aga but would not follow instructions. On Nov. 4 he entered a gentlement for nervous frouths even months aga but would not follow instructions. On Nov. 4 he entered a gentlement of the relative of the archives of United Service and Into the archives of United Service and the first and his family did not feel like taking riege to restrain him by force.

Representatives of Klaw & Enderson and the first content of the Atlantic Fleet, which had been in the North River to permit their officers and men to attend the game, passed out to sea to-day for target practice. They will return on Saturday, Dec. 2, according to present orders, to participate in the celebration of the permanent lighting of the States of the Atlantic Fleet, which had been in the North River to permit their officers and men to attend the game, passed out to sea to-day for target practice. They will return on Saturday, Dec. 2, according to present orders. They declared he had been from the Lambs Friars and other class of which Mr. Brooks in the States of the Atlantic Fleet, which had been in the Brooks offices this afternoon. They declared he had been from the Lambs Friars and other class of which Mr. Brooks in the States of the Atlantic Fleet, which had been in the Brooks offices this afternoon. They declared he had been from the Lambs Friars and other class of which Mr. Brooks in the States of the Atlantic Fleet, which had been in the Brooks offices this afternoon. They declared he had been from the Lambs Friars and other class of which Mr. Brooks in the States of the Atlantic Fleet, which had been in the Brooks offices this afternoon. The declared he had been from the Lambs Friars and other class of which Mr. Brooks in the states of the stat carrying a cargo of munitions.

HE WARNS WALL STREET AGAINST BRITISH GOLD

Collects Crowd in Front of Morgan Offices. BERNSTORFF LUNCH

Wall Street district in the form of a Ambassador Has Conference cation of Great Britain. He carried With Secretary Before Meet- a large banner bearing the following

"Don't take my gold-it will ruin you. make you rich and certainly wise.

sador Gerard, home from Berlin on vacation, paid his first visit to the in front of the offices of J. P. Morgan

State Department to-day since his & Co., fiscal agents here for the Brithere and are expected to be comparitival, and later with Mrs. Gerard ish Government. A crowd of 500 persish Government arrival, and later with Mrs. Gerard ish Government. A crowd of 500 persish government ish Government arrival. was a guest of the German Amuassa- sons quickly collected and a traffic dor and Countess von Bernstorff at policeman ordered the man to move luncheon. Secretary Lansing, with

The conference between Mr. Gerard CHALONER'S AUTO TO HAVE and Secretary Lansing to-day was the last to be held preparatory to sailing of the Ambassador for Germany

The Ambassador and the Secretary Extra Allowance for Machine in were uniformly silent about what was Which He Can Ride While discussed at their session, which Reclining. lasted an hour, but in official quarters the impression prevailed that the To purchase an automobile with all delicate nature of the submarine situation and the deportation of Belgians to Germany were discussed. Mr. Gerard probably will see President the comforts of a Pullman car, John Armstrong Chaloner, insane in New York but legally able to care for him-While at the State Department Mr. self in Virginia, was allowed an in-Gerard also went over the Mexican situation, presumably to be in position to give first hand information on the by Justice Shearn. He will now resubject to Germany which has many ceive $25,000 a year instead of $24,000, interests there. He also spent an His estate, which earns $48,000 a hour with Assistant Secretary Philips, who is in direct charge of Chalence in Accordance in New York.

The United States Government already has called Germany's attention to the effect upon neutral opinion of the deportation of Belgians and Mr. Gerard is expected in supplement

HELPLESS IN THE PACIFIC The Neils Neilsen Loses Her Propeller and American Ships Speed to Aid Her. SAN FRANCISCO Nov. 27.—The Norwegian steamer Neils Neilsen is in distress 250 miles west of Seattle, according to advices received to-day according to advices received to-day the United States naval radio Miles Noilsen Co. States advices were accorded Mining Neilsen Co. States advices were Mireless advices were accorded Mining Mining Neilsen Co. station here. Wireless advices were that the vessel had lost her propeller The U. S. S. South Dakota and other vessels in the Pacific are going

She is of 8,800 tons. Her crew is en-MILLS'S WATCHMAN SHOT.

"John Bull" was seen to-day in the Take my unsecured notes-they will "J. Bull" was first noticed when he walked through Wall treet and stopped whom Gerard had conferred, was also pearing in the direction of the Curb the deportation of Belgians and Mr. Gerard is expected to supplement these representations, by personal presentations of the American view-point, in the hope that the situation can be alleviated.

PULLMAN CAR COMFORTS

CINCINNATI, Nov. 27.—After years but one meal of meal and one egg a week, she and but no one is faint of this city to-day announces he has isometric to be the cancer germ. He says he is developing a serum for the treatment of the Norway formation of the American view-point, in the hope that the situation can be alleviated. can be alleviated.

As to the submarine situation, Mr. Gerard will be in position to say that the attitude of the American Government is unaltered and that it expects Germany to fulfil her pledges.

CLOSING QUOTATIONS.

U. S. SUBMARINE N-4 IS SAFELY LAUNCHED

Man Masquerading as "John Bull" She Is One of Four Equipped With All Needs Developed During Present War

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Nov. 21 -- The N-4, the latest type of submarine built man bedecked according to the oar- for the United States Government. coonists' portrayal of the personifa- was launched successfully to-day at the yards of the Lake Torpedoboat Has No Thought of Fighting Company

Miss Dorothy H. Elliott of Heynoidsville, Pa. was its sponsor, breaking a bottle of champagne over its bow as the boat slid into the water. The vessel combines all the elements which the experience of submarines in the present war has shown be desirable

RAILWAYS WILL BOW TO GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP

Thom Says They Would Not Impede Plan if Adopted-Some Getting Anxious for It.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27 .- Lawyer Thom, railway counsel, questioned to-day by the Newlands Congress Committee, stated that he believed government ownership would not be was adopted.

"Government ownership," he said. is easy if you have got the money of acquire the property and it is not necessary to facilitate it." He added hat some railroad men, but not not not, were getting anxious for government.

ISOLATES CANCER GERM.

Have Made Discovery.

developing a serum for the treatment of cancer in its early stages.

I have treated five cases with the serum, he said. They were so far advanced that it is remarkable that the serum could do any good. But it brought good results in three cases, and in two the patients died of other complications.

PRIEST IS FOUND DEAD.

Dr. Schotthoefer of Summit Succambs to Heart Disease. SUMMIT, N. J., Nov. 27.—Rev. Dr. Conrad Schotthoefer, rector of St. Ter-

Conrad Schotthoefer, rector of at leresa's Roman Catholic Church, was found dead in bed this morning in the rectory at No. 306 Morris Avenue. Father Schotthoefer had suffered from heart trouble. He was born at Syracuse and was educated there and at Trenton.
N. J., and then at Genos, in Italy, where he obtained his degree of Doctor of Divinity. he obtained his degree of Doctor of Divinity.

He was attached to churches in Newark and then was rector of the church at Boonton for seventoun years. He came here four years aso and cleared off $22,000 of the church's debt. He was fifty-seven years old.

Kentucky Hospital.

(Special to The Evening World)
COVINGTON, Nov. 27.—Edward Willams, a New York scenic artists, is at Et. Elizabeth Hospital in a dying con dition the result of a fall from Chies Bridge. The physicians say his left side is paralyzed and no hopes are entertained for his recovery. He is said to have a brother in New York City, also well-known as a scenic artist.

Funeral of Mrs. Almeric Paget. LONDON, Nov. 27 .- The funeral took place to-day of Mrs. Almeric Paget, who WATER died last week at Esher, Surrey. Before her marriage Mrs. Paget was Miss Pauline Whitney of New York. Wounded solders acted as palibearers in recognition of Mrs. Paget's labors for the wounded since the outbreak of the war.

NORWAY EXPECTS TO WIN GERMANY'S SHIPPING TRADE

Because of Vessels Sunk. Says Hannevig.

The Scandinavian-American lines Frederick VIII, which reached this port to-day without having seen submarine or having had other adventure than a stormy passage. brought among its 1.078 passengers Christopher Hannevig of the Norwegian shipping firm of Hannevig &

"Any talk of war between Germany and Norway over the sinking of Norwegian vessels is nonsonse. Norway is content to suffer these now, because she sees the way clear to wresting most of Germany's shipping trade from her after the war. Norway is building 200 ships in the United States now, and before long we shall have lines from San Francisco to the Orient lines from San Francisco to the Orient and from many South American ports to the United States.

Dr. J. C. Ellehanner of Copeniagen, another passenger, came with a new aeropiane invention by which, he said, it would be possible for a machine, equipped on top with his propeller, to rise into the air vertically instead of by making a forward run, as is now necessary. His device also contemplates operating an aeropiane forward or backward or to either side.

The Germans of Berlin are living now on a rigid dict, according to the

The Germans of Berlin are living now on a rigid diet, according to the statements of Mrs. Atleen Winslow, write of Lawrence L. Winslow, Third Secretary of the American Embassy at Berlin, who was one of the Frederick's passengers. They are having but one meal of meat and one egg a week, she said, but no one is faint of

New York Shipbuilding Company Absorbed by New Concern. CAMDEN. N. J. Nov. 27.—The sale pany to the American International Cor pany to the American International Cor-poration was formally ratified here to-day at a special meeting of stockhold-ers. It was announced that more than 10,000 snares in excess of the neces-sary majority were voted. There was no opposition to the sale. The price я $15.000,000

Offering for Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 27th and 28th

Special for Monday, Nov. 27th
MOLASSES CHEAM LUMPS—Glossy jackets of crisp, pure. Open-Rettle New Orleans Molasses: centres of delicious cream in the popular ice cream flavor.
POUND BOX 13C

Special for Tuesday, Nov. 28th PEANUT CREAM RISSES—Thank the annua wouth for his tostheams in his tostheams

